THE PROCESS

KIP Canada and Y.A.A.A.C.E have partnered together to provide a diversion program for youth as well as individual counselling and supportive programming.

OUR MISSION

Our mission is to connect the youth we serve with a mentor to help build self-esteem, improve social skills, and provide case management.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

- Youth Diversion Program:
Providing an alternative to the justice system through mentorship and constructive activities.
- Individual Counseling:
Tailored counseling sessions to address personal challenges and foster growth.
- Supportive Programming:
Engaging workshops and activities to enhance life skills and promote social integration.

THE PROGRAM

Fresh Start is a diversion program designed for youth ages 12-17 years old, who are in conflict or on the path of being in conflict with the law

Fresh Start provides access to ongoing individual and family support, a mandatory 12-chapter rehabilitative workshop with a complimentary workbook the youth must complete.

Through structured programming and dedicated mentorship, we empower youth to make meaningful changes in their lives.
